The FIRST LEGO League Tennessee Championship Tournament is jointly organized by The Herff College of Engineering, of the University of Memphis, the Memphis Branches of the IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers) and TSPE (Tennessee Society of Professional Engineers). These organizations support the development and strengthening of mathematics & science education and have long histories of working with K-12 education programs that utilize hands-on engaged learning activities for students, such as FIRST® LEGO® League.

In FIRST® LEGO® League (FLL®), children are immersed in real-world science and technology challenges. Teams design their own solution to a current scientific question or problem and build autonomous LEGO® robots that perform a series of missions. Through their participation, children develop valuable life skills and discover exciting career possibilities while learning that they can make a positive contribution to society.
